1 INTRODUCTION

Who would have thought that Bob Dylan not only would take up the role as Disc Jockey for a radio show, but that he should do it so well. From the first program treating the theme Weather he sounded perfectly comfortable, like he had been doing this for years. The first 34 shows of the planned series of 50 were broadcast in 2006. All were one hour programs except the theme Time, which ran for 77 minutes (!) and the two-hour Christmas and New Year's program. Many of Bob Dylan's contributions were probably recorded during the Never-Ending Tour which this year consisted of 98 concerts in US and Europe. And as if this was not enough Bob Dylan found time to record a new album, Modern Times, in February-March! The album was released in August and songs from it made their live debuts during the US Fall Tour.

6 THEME TIME RADIO HOUR

6.1 Introduction

Theme Time Radio Hour was a one-hour long radio show hosted by Bob Dylan. Each episode was an eclectic, freeform brew of blues, folk, rockabilly, R&B, soul, bebop, rock-and-roll, country and pop music, centered around a "theme," with songs from artists as diverse as Patti Page and LL Cool J.

Interspersed between the music segments were email readings, listener phone calls, vintage radio air checks, old radio promos and jingles, poetry recitations; taped messages from a variety of celebrities, musicians and comedians; and commentary from Bob Dylan on the music and musicians as well as miscellanea related to the themes.

The show was not live, Dylan taped his portions at various locations and while touring, and the studio location at the Abernathy Building was fictitious. Most of the "listener phone calls" and emails were also fictitious, although at least one email read on the show came from an actual listener.

Theme Time Radio Hour was originally broadcast every Wednesday at 10:00 am ET on the Deep Tracks channel of XM Satellite Radio, a subscription-based satellite radio service.

The show was produced by Eddie Gorodetsky and ran during three seasons:

| Season | shows | from              | to            |
|--------|-------|-------------------|---------------|
| 1      | 50    | 3 May 2006        | 18 April 2007 |
| 2      | 25    | 19 September 2007 | 2 April 2008  |
| 3      | 25    | 8 October 2008    | 15 April 2009 |

Actress Ellen Barkin read the opening introduction for each episode during the first two seasons with the exception of the Season 1 Halloween episode. Barkin read the intro intermittently during Season 3.

The announcer "Pierre Mancini" was probably the voice of Eddie Gorodetsky.
