1 INTRODUCTION

In an interview some years ago, Neil Young was asked what to expect from Bob Dylan in the future, and he grinned and said “More of the same, more of the same”. Well, 2008 was really a year of “more of the same”: more shows with the same songs played with the same band and more Theme Time Radio Hour shows. Highlight of the year was of course the release of the 8th installment in the Bootleg Series: Tell-Tale Signs. Rare and unreleased 1989-2006, a great collection of alternate takes, outtakes, non-album tracks and live recordings.

2 2008 AT A GLANCE

Minneapolis, Minnesota, 4 November, La Crosse, Wisconsin, 5 November and New York City, New York, 21 November.

<sup>13</sup> a show is unique if no other show has the same songs in the same order;

<sup>14</sup> a show is different from another show if the set of songs are different, regardless of order

<sup>15</sup> variation is computed as the quote between number of different songs and mean number of performed songs

6 THEME TIME RADIO HOUR

6.1 Introduction

Theme Time Radio Hour was a one-hour long radio show hosted by Bob Dylan. Each episode was an eclectic, freeform brew of blues, folk, rockabilly, R&B, soul, bebop, rock-and-roll, country and pop music, centered around a "theme," with songs from artists as diverse as Patti Page and LL Cool J.

Interspersed between the music segments were email readings, listener phone calls, vintage radio air checks, old radio promos and jingles, poetry recitations; taped messages from a variety of celebrities, musicians and comedians; and commentary from Bob Dylan on the music and musicians as well as miscellanea related to the themes.

The show was not live, Dylan taped his portions at various locations and while touring, and the studio location at the Abernathy Building was fictitious. Most of the "listener phone calls" and emails were also fictitious, although at least one email read on the show came from an actual listener.

Theme Time Radio Hour was originally broadcast every Wednesday at 10:00 am ET on the Deep Tracks channel of XM Satellite Radio, a subscription-based satellite radio service.

The show was produced by Eddie Gorodetsky and ran during three seasons:

Season	shows	from	to
1	50	3 May 2006	18 April 2007
2	25	19 September 2007	2 April 2008
3	25	8 October 2008	15 April 2009

Actress Ellen Barkin read the opening introduction for each episode during the first two seasons with the exception of the Season 1 Halloween episode. Barkin read the intro intermittently during Season 3.

The announcer "Pierre Mancini" was probably the voice of Eddie Gorodetsky.

Note that three episodes in season 2 were re-runs of episodes from season 1: "Halloween", "Thanksgiving Leftovers" and the "Christmas/New Years" episode.
