1 INTRODUCTION

Another busy year for Bob Dylan. Recording sessions during January, February and March yielded a new album with ten new songs, several in the murder ballad genre. Touring the globe resulted in visits to South and Central America as well as the perennial tour of Europe. During the last days of the year Sony Music rushed out an extremely limited release in Europe of outtakes from 1962 to extend their copyright ownership.

2 2012 AT A GLANCE

3 THE 2012 CALENDAR

- 12 January Bob Dylan performs Blind Willie McTell as a tribute to Martin Scorsese during the Critics' Choice Movie Awards at Hollywood Palladium Theater in Los Angeles, California
- January – March Bob Dylan's 35th studio album, Tempest, is recorded in Jackson Browne's Groove Masters Studios in Santa Monica, California.
- 15 April This year's touring starts in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. The band remains the same as well as the show structure, song selection and arrangements.
- 19 April Levom Helm dies of cancer. Bob Dylan publishes the following response on bobdylan.com:
 "He was my bosom buddy friend to the end, one of the last true great spirits of my or any other generation. This is just so sad to talk about. I still can remember the first day I met him and the last day I saw him. We go back pretty far and had been through some trials together. I'm going to miss him, as I'm sure a whole lot of others will too."
- 26 April President Obama names Bob Dylan as one of the recipients of the Presidential Medal of Freedom.
- 12 May The Spring tour ends with two shows in Mexico City, Mexico.
- 29 May In a ceremony in the East Room in the White House, Bob Dylan receives the Presidential Medal of Freedom from President Barack Obama together with twelve other recipients, among them Madeleine Albright, John Glenn and Toni Morrison. The award statement: "A modern day troubadour, Bob Dylan established himself as one of the most influential musicians of the 20th century. The rich poetry of his lyrics opened up new possibilities for popular song and inspired generations. His melodies have brought ancient tradition into the modern age. Within 50 years after his career began Bob Dylan remains an eminent voice in our national conversation and around the world."
 Barack Obama's introduction: "Bob Dylan started out singing other people's songs, by that he says there came a point where I'd write what I wanted to say because what I wanted to say nobody else was writing. Born in Hibbing, Minnesota, a town, he says, where you couldn't be a rebel, it was too cold. Bob moved to New York at age 19, by the time he was 23, Bob's voice with its weight, its unique gravelly power was redefining not just what music sounded like, but the message it carried and how it make people feel. Today everybody from Bruce Springstrten to U2 owes Bob a debt of gratitude. There's not a bigger giant in the history of American music. All these years later he's still chasing that sound, he's still searching for a little bit of truth and I have to say that I'm a really big fan!"
- 25-27 June Three days of private rehearsals at the Bardavon 1869 Opera House in Poughkeepsie, New York.
- 30 June Bob Dylan returns to Hop Farm in England to kick off the perennial European tour. Dylan now starts playing a grand piano instead of the KORG keyboard. This is used in the first song only.
- 22 July The summer tour in Europe ends with a show at the Festival Vieilles Charrues in Carhaix-Plouguer, France.
- 10 August The US summer tour starts in Canada with a show in Lloydminster, Saskatchewan.
- 18 August This Dream Of You returns to the set at the show in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. It was last played in Bloomington, Indiana, 2 November 2009.
- 26 August The McCrary Sisters join Dylan during the encore Blowin' At The Wind at the show in Cincinnati, Ohio. The McCrary Sisters consist of Regina, Ann, Deborah and Alfreda. Regina was one of Bob Dylan's backup singers on the 1979-1981 tours. Regina also

- appeared on the Slow Train Coming, Saved and Shot Of Love albums.
- 10 September Release of Tempest. Please refer to section 4.4.
- 5 October The year's final tour criss-crosses Canada and US hitting 31 cities in 22 states with 33 shows. Mark Knopfler and his band is the support act. The first show features the first live version of a song from Tempest, Scarlet Town, which sadly is not repeated during this tour.
- 8 October There are no songs from Tempest in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada but the first performance of Ain't Talkin' since New York City, New York 22 November 2010.
- 9 October At the show in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada the song Shadows by Gordon Lightfoot is played as a request.
- 10 October Joey returns to the setlist after almost six years. Last time was in Chicago, Illinois 28 October 2006.

- 28 November The exhibition Revisionist Art: Thirty Works by Bob Dylan, featuring magazine covers re-imagined by Bob Dylan, opens at The Gagosian Gallery on Madison Avenue, New York City, New York.

The set is limited to probably no more than a hundred copies. The release is triggered by European copyright laws which would pass these recordings onto public domain unless Sony claims ownership by releasing them one way or another.
